

Relocatable Home-Based Import / Wholesale

It is very rarely that we are honoured to be able to offer a business for sale that has the longevity and success that this business has. First started in the late 1800's, this currently home-based Import / Wholesale business has had significant growth in the last 10 years and is continuing to grow market share. A number of new opportunities are emerging for a new owner to expand not only the range of products, but expand internationally. Currently operating 5 days a week from a double garage at the Vendor's home, this business is perfectly relocatable to any part of New Zealand. Maintained at its present trading level, a double garage would be perfect, but the realistic opportunity of growing the business throughout Australasia and the Pacific region, with a number of options provided, and an expansion of the range would require larger premises. As with most Import businesses, international travel will be required 2 or 3 times a year, as is national travel within NZ. This business has a well proven framework of success and it needs a new owner with zest and energy to continue the growth curve. Currently employing just one staff member, sales are increasing year on year and a consistent GP percentage allows the owners significant flexibility in the operation of the business. Cash surplus for FY15 was $131,000. The Vendors are retiring after 10 years and will provide a smooth and very informative
