

Electric Motor & Generator Sales, Service & Repair

After 37 years in the industry the current owners want to retire and are offering this well respected and recognisable business for sale. Close to central Auckland and with great motorway access, the business is located in rented premises (term negotiable) on a busy road in an industrial area close to rail, Port of Onehunga, southern and western motorways.

Staff comprise of three directors (one is office administrator) plus one very experienced workshop staff member who will be open to continued employment if required. The owners are also willing to offer a comprehensive training period to the new purchaser.

Their high level of service, quick turnaround times and customer focused mentality plus great word of mouth referrals has resulted in a very strong customer base and good supplier relationships. There are also existing arrangements with several generator distributors to repair and service all units and carry out warranty work plus the business carries a wide range of stock for all makes of generators and electric motors. The workshop is equipped with lifting gear, small bake out oven, specialised trade equipment and test gear.

Indicative price includes stock at current value: $150,000 (plus GST if any).

This would be a great opportunity for an individual with a strong mechanical background, looking for an entry point to business ownership or perhaps a larger business looking to add capability to an existing mechanical or engineering business.
