

Freight Forwarder with Competitive Edge!

With a very sound 25-year history, this freight forwarder has set a standard through their modus operandi that can only be admired by their competitors.

With a very small number of staff, and 1.5 working owners, this business's knowledge of the industries that they focus on, are key performers in, enables performance and margin maximisation with the benefits of a growing category, and continuing opportunities for further profitable growth opportunities.

Principally involved with inbound seafreight into NZ; however other LCL, FCL and airfreight both inbound and outbound are still handled on a daily basis.

Based in South Auckland, and with many competitive advantages, this business would ideally suit a Husband and Wife Team / or other partnership - particularly if one is a pinned Customs Broker where immediate benefits would flow directly to the already attractive bottom line showing an EBIPTDA of $513,000 for FY16.

Asking price is just $972,000 (plus GST if any).
