2017 = $1,887,268

Consistent growth continues this financial year with the first 3 months turnover up *$189K and profitability up $69K, at the same point last year. There is a huge pipeline of secured work and the Vendor is willing to stay within the business which offers excellent security. The company's Operations manger moved on and a new one was appointed internally so there is a circa $95K salary (plus bonus) still available in the business. You can potentially keep the Vendor on without affecting the advertised profits!

The business has it all:

• Security with the Vendor prepared to stay within the business
• A company that offers a quality product & service within thriving building market
• Huge pipeline, with more confirmed work than ever!
• Increased profits and consistent history of growth
• An extra *$95K wage up the sleeve of incoming owner!

Associated with a first class supplier with superior systems, quality products, a pipeline of work and the support from the Vendor, this highly profitable thriving company presents a
