Established Food Manufacturing Business

First time on the market since operations began almost 20 years ago; this very well established food manufacturing business is ready for new ownership.

With strong, consistent sales to a range of customers including cafes, restaurants, accommodation establishments, caterers as well as direct to the end user, the business operations are simple; manufacture and supply fresh & frozen, quality product and supply it to a very solid customer base with some nationwide customers.

This business operates only five days a week, 7am-3pm from its convenient central location and whilst the business is well set up in its current premises (good rent and outgoings) the business could easily be relocated.

Loyal and knowledgeable key staff are keen to stay on and the current, passionate owner is willing to assist to ensure a smooth transition and all the necessary training.

The business could benefit from stronger marketing strategies and further expansion of the product range if this is of interest; however the consistency of the business has been busy enough for the owner. The user friendly website provides
